4 things to check first

These are the points most likely to affect your study plan.

1 Course language

An English course title does not necessarily mean the course is taught in English.

2 Labs & fieldwork

Check requirements early. Safety training is mandatory before access.

3 Timetable & exams

Always use the official online systems for current dates, rooms and exam sessions.

4 Ask early

Contact the course teacher or SCVSA international team when something is unclear.

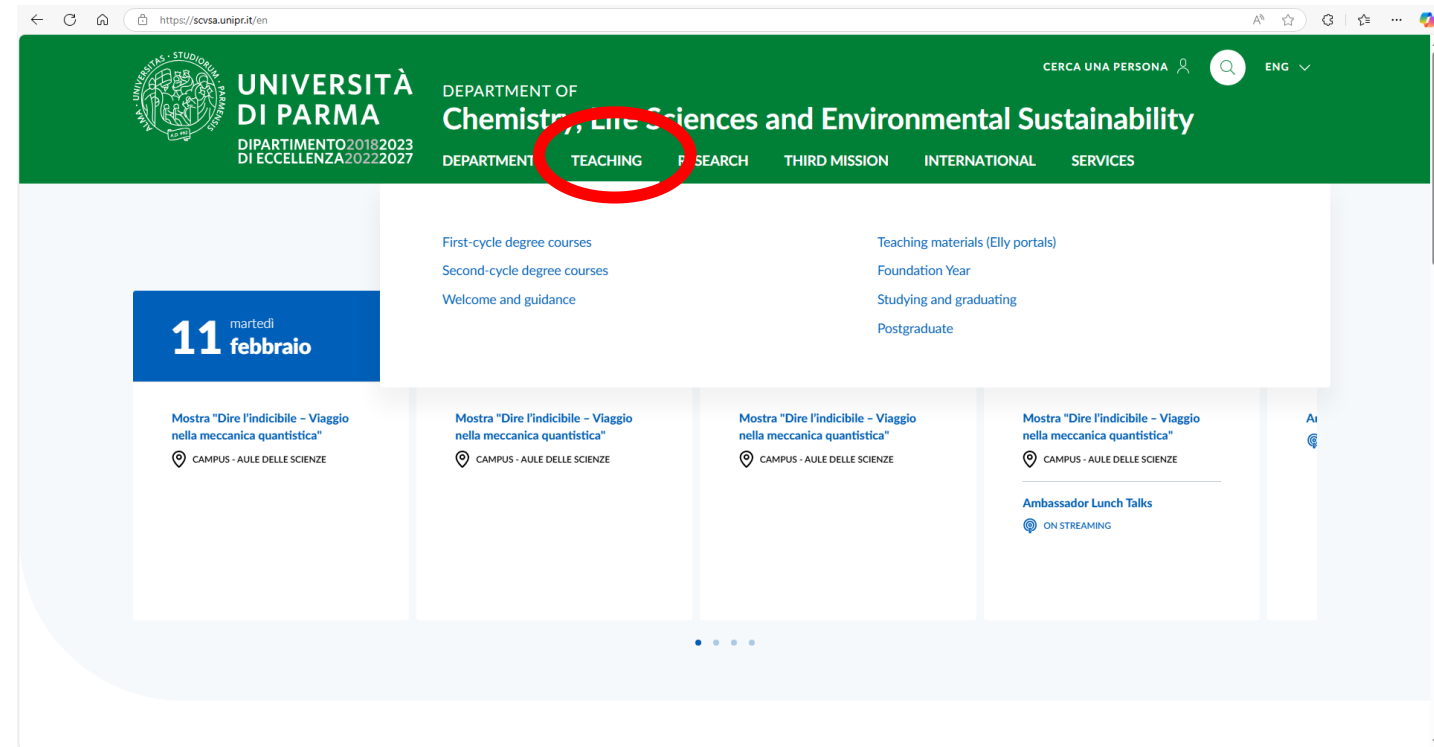

Best habit: verify each course unit page before finalising your Learning Agreement.

Choosing course units

Keep the Learning Agreement simple and verifiable.

- Start from the official Course Catalogue.
- Open the individual course unit page and check: teaching language, semester, ECTS, prerequisites, lab/field activities and assessment.
- If a detail is unclear, contact the course teacher before committing.
- ECTS check: 1 ECTS $\approx$ 25 hours of total workload; many course units are 6 ECTS.

DEPARTMENT OF
CHEMISTRY, LIFE SCIENCES AND ENVIRONMENTAL SUSTAINABILITY

Degree course in BIOLOGY

DEGREE COURSE
CHRONOLOGICAL ACCESS
COURSE IN ITALIAN

The degree course includes activities aimed at the acquisition of theoretical foundations and adequate operational elements with regard to: the biology of microorganisms, plant organisms and various animal species including man, at the morphological, functional, cellular and molecular level; mechanisms of inheritance and development; the presence and effects of living beings in the environment.

Adequate knowledge of mathematics, statistics, computer science, physics and chemistry as well as biological laboratory skills is expected.

The course includes a final practical work internship to be carried out in university or non-university facilities under the guidance of a tutor.

The screenshot displays the official course catalogue for the University of Parma, specifically for the Degree Course in Biology. The page is divided into two main sections: 'List of courses' and 'How the programme of study works'.

List of courses: This section features a dropdown menu for 'YEAR OF ENROLMENT' and a 'CURRICULUM' button. A red arrow points to this section.

How the programme of study works: This section provides detailed information about the programme, including the list of courses, the programme of study, and the submission process. A red arrow points to this section.

Course Details: The 'List of courses' section also includes a table of courses for the 'First year' and 'FIRST SEMESTER'. The table lists the course name, ECTS value, and the responsible teacher.

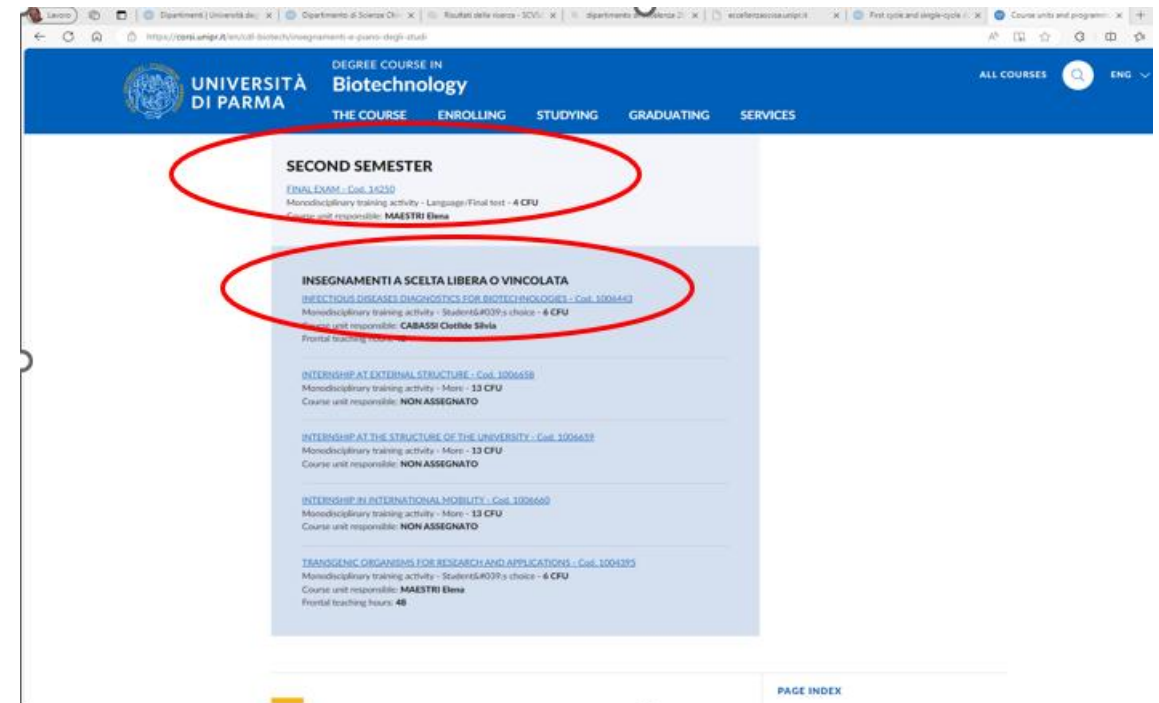

Course Name	ECTS	Responsible Teacher

The screenshot shows the official course unit page for the University of Parma. The header includes the university logo and navigation links. The main content area displays the course title 'INFECTIOUS DISEASES DIAGNOSTICS FOR BIOTECHNOLOGIES' with code 1006443. It specifies the academic year 2025/26, 3rd year, second semester. The professor is listed as 'Malattie infettive degli animali domestici (VET/05)'. The field is 'A scelta dello studente' and the training activity is 'Student's choice'. Four icons represent course details: 48 hours of face-to-face activities, 6 credits, Hub Parma, and Course Unit in Italian. The 'Course Unit in Italian' icon is circled in red, with a red diagonal banner reading 'ATTENTION COURSE UNIT LANGUAGE'. At the bottom, there are buttons for 'LECTURES TIMETABLE UNAVAILABLE' and 'EXAM CALLS'.
